The goods and possessions I have left behind at the property located at are:

I/we consent to the removal and disposal by North Coast Community Housing (NCCH) of all personal goods from the former NCCH tenancy.

I understand that any personal documents will be stored by NCCH for a minimum period of 90 days. Upon the expiration of this period, NCCH will return those documents to the issuing authority.

I understand that all other goods, including any equipment or furniture, will be removed from the premises by NCCH and disposed of at their own discretion. I understand that NCCH is under no obligation to sell any of the useable goods, but may have them destroyed or donate them to another organisation or individual

I understand my rights and obligations under the Residential Tenancies Act NSW (2010) in relation to goods abandoned by tenants.
